I am the mom of 4 great children – ages 2 thru 12. I am also the wife of a great guy. My husband is a Veteran of the US Air Force, and after serving our country, is battling some health challenges that currently make him unemployable.

We were in a very tight place financially. We were renting a very small apartment which does not offer much space inside or outside for the kids to play. We needed to provide a place for the kids to play and just be kids. So we swallowed our pride and applied for a family scholarship at the Y.

We were overjoyed when we found out we had received a full family scholarship! This was the best thing that had happened to us in a long time!

All of our kids are in Y programs and love it! They enjoy the free swim, karate, and open gym time. The babysitting staff, for my 2 year old, is so caring and I know she is in good hands. All the kids have made new friends and we are very grateful!

I have spent enough time at the Y to lose 41 pounds and 23 inches! The weight loss helped me have the confidence to get back in to the working world!

Thank you,
Linda
