

Thank you so much for reaching out regarding day camp this summer.

The Y is still working toward a plan for summer camp, but as you know, we must wait for official direction from the Governor, the CDC, and our local Board of Health. When we open and under what parameters will largely depend on their guidance. .

We do know that emergency child care programs will continue to run until June 29th, and our assumption at this time is that camp would not start prior to that date.

We are currently accepting camp registrations for those that are looking to hold a spot. While we are able to hold spots at this time, there are a number of variables and scenarios out of our control, which may result in limited or no capacity for enrollment this summer. For that reason, we cannot guarantee camp enrollment even if you hold a spot.

If we are unable to run camp or are unable to honor your registration, you will be fully refunded.

What precautions will be taken to keep my child safe from Covid 19 while at camp?

The Y is still working toward a plan to ensure we are providing the best possible care, including new social distancing protocols and implementing new requirements from the Department of Public Health.

We need to wait for guidance and direction from the Governor and CDC and our local Board of Health.

Potential plans include:

- Spreading children out in smaller groups and physically distancing them around camp
- Not allowing children or staff at camp who are exhibiting symptoms
- Increased hand washing and accessibility to hand sanitizer
- Disinfection and cleaning of all areas
- Revised pick up and drop off procedures to limit contact and exposure

We will add to this list as we receive more information.

What happens if a child or staff member at the camp tests positive for Covid 19?

We will strive to ensure all campers and staff are proactively scanned and all social distancing guidelines are adhered to. In the case that there was a suspected case of COVID-19 we will work with our local Board of Health and the Department of Public Health to ensure we minimize the risk to any campers or staff.

What are the next steps after I submit my registration form?

You will receive a confirmation once we have received and processed your registration form. You will then be contacted once we have determined when camp is able to run and if your spot is confirmed.

Once your spot is confirmed you will receive your welcome packet which will include a welcome letter, activity calendar, and parent handbook.
